

Details of Business:

The company is engaged in the business of planning, designing, constructing, developing, and managing residential, commercial, industrial, and infrastructure projects, including buildings, apartments, townships, roads, bridges, and public utilities. It undertakes contracts and turnkey projects for government and private entities involving construction, engineering, development, and maintenance of civil and structural works.

The company also focuses on infrastructure development such as highways, railways, airports, power projects, water systems, and urban facilities under various models like BOT, BOO, and turnkey execution. Additionally, it is involved in the acquisition, development, leasing, and trading of land, properties, and real estate assets.

Further, the company carries on mining and processing activities related to granite and other minerals, including extraction, manufacturing, trading, import, and export of mineral products and related materials.